Go-Go Symphony Merges Classical and DC Dance Music

Conductor Liza Figueroa Kravinsky is an award winning composer of film and pop music. Founded in 2012, the 20 member Go-Go Symphony is comprised of a mix of classically trained musicians and experienced go-go musicians.

The Go-Go Symphony performs original classical compositions over Washington DC's popular funk sub genre of go-go. This long term collaboration between classical and pop musicians is regarded as "maverick" in the classical music world, and the original compositions are loved by the go-go crowd.

Go-Go Symphony - a thunderous percussive symphony that people can dance to.
